NOTABLE VITAMINS & MINERALS

- Bread flour (enriched): iron, thiamin, riboflavin, niacin, and folic acid — standard fortification for most bread flour sold in the U.S.
- Eggs: choline, vitamin D, vitamin B12, and selenium.
- Butter: a meaningful source of vitamin A.
- Orange juice & zest: the headline nutritional contribution here — a genuine dose of vitamin C, plus folate and a little potassium.

This is a rich, buttery, egg-heavy loaf by design, brightened with real citrus — enjoy it as the sunny indulgence it's meant to be. Skipping the glaze trims roughly 15–20 calories and 4g of sugar per slice.
