

Bruce's Breads: Master Baking Playlist

Every phase-based playlist from the seven finished recipes, combined into one listening order and stripped of repeats — jazz, jazz fusion, and a little rock/indie for good measure. Search these up on whatever streaming platform you use; nothing here is an embedded or licensed playlist.

STARTER FEEDING / QUIET REST

- José González — “Heartbeats” (Veneer, 2003)
- Toots Thielemans — “Bluesette” (The Whistler and His Guitar, 1963)
- Feist — “1234” (The Reminder, 2007)

SHAPING

New phase heading, added for Well Bread — the first recipe on the site with a shaping step substantial enough (the brioche à tête’s body/head division and assembly) to earn its own listening block rather than folding into Bulk Fermentation or Final Proof.

- Bonobo — “Kerala” (Migration, 2017)
- Lake Street Dive — “Bad Self Portraits” (Bad Self Portraits, 2014)

FINAL PROOF

New phase heading, added for Well Bread — enriched dough’s slower, watchful final proof (keeping an eye on the head staying seated) reads differently than the long unattended Bulk Fermentation wait, so it gets its own quieter block.

- Norah Jones — “Come Away With Me” (Come Away with Me, 2002)
- The Paper Kites — “Bloom” (States, 2013)
- Bon Iver — “Skinny Love” (For Emma, Forever Ago, 2007)

BAKE AND COOL

- Chick Corea & Return to Forever — “Spain” (Light as a Feather, 1973)
- Weather Report — “Birdland” (Heavy Weather, 1977)
- Herbie Hancock — “Chameleon” (Head Hunters, 1973)
- Grover Washington Jr. — “Mister Magic” (Mister Magic, 1975)
- Édith Piaf — “La Vie en Rose” (La Vie en Rose, 1947)
- Miles Davis — “Générique” (Ascenseur pour l’échafaud, 1958)

- Al Green — “Let’s Stay Together” (Let’s Stay Together, 1972)
